

Artichoke technique: Cacti

Instructions No. 321

With fantasy and a few tricks, artichoke balls are transformed into unusual decorative objects. Thus the classic, which wrongly has a somewhat "dusty" image, becomes highly topical again.

to the triangle

the square at two corners with the tip pointing angles

for the last row. The upper tip will then always be bottom of the ball. To finish, fold all four corners in pots and let them dry. Glue the artichoke balls to the "cactus" with a Pin attached to Polystyrene balls or other polystyrene figures for effect". By using different folding techniques and the fabric is cut and folded to fit.
